

GCSE English Language and English Literature

Key Information

Exam Board	AQA for English Language and English Literature (Waiting for confirmation from AQA as to the element that can be dropped)
English Literature texts studied	Romeo and Juliet by William Shakespeare A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens An Inspector Calls by J B Priestley Power and Conflict Poetry (anthology provided by AQA)* *possibly dropped from the exam to support exam content and delivery due to COVID-19

Mock Exams

When	What
W/C 11 th November	English Literature Paper 2 English Language Paper 1
W/C 9 th March	English Literature Paper 1 English Language Paper 2

After School Intervention

When	Where
Alternate Wednesdays First	TBC

Homework

When	What
Issued fortnightly (Thursdays)	Short booklets designed to support students with revision of knowledge and skills for all four English exams. Practice questions and additional revision material are always issued before the mock exams and then again in preparation for the final exams in the summer.

GCSE Exams*

English Literature Paper 1	Waiting for confirmation from the government on the dates for exams.
English Literature Paper 2
English Language Paper 1	Traditionally these take place mid-May and the beginning for June.
English Language Paper 2	Literature exams are usually before Language.

*dates are currently classed as provisional by AQA. We will let you know if these change.