

Performing Arts Rewards Policy

1

DAILY

Verbal praise, house points, a minimum of 1 good news postcard per teacher per lesson, a phone call home (1 per teacher) for the best student of the day!

2

WEEKLY

Each class teacher will have a student of the week who will receive a postcard, phone call home and certificate, their name will be displayed in the teacher's classroom

3

HALF TERMLY

The pupils with the highest achievement points and ATL in the subject (3 boys and 3 girls for each year group) will get certificates and a letter from the subject leader to celebrate their achievement, handed out in lessons or assembly. Teachers will also make a phone call home. If finances allow, a student may receive a small reward

4

TERMLY

A trip, across the subjects, for students who have excelled the most in each subject. The trip may be to a local event or venue (e.g., a pantomime or gallery). If finances allow, a student may receive a small reward, or a discount off the cost of lessons (e.g., instrument lessons) or off a trip.

5

YEARLY

A major trip - shared between the subjects - for example to a London theatre / venue, at a subsidised price, if finances allow.
