

English Department Rewards

HOW WE WILL RECOGNISE YOU

Daily	A minimum of one phone call and one post card given by each teacher in the department.
Weekly	Each teacher will have a weekly winner for the classes they teach. Pupils will be given a departmental postcard and a phone call home.
Half Termly	The pupils with the highest achievement points and attitude to learning in the subject will be nominated by English teachers. They will get certificates and a letter from the head of department to celebrate their achievement these will be handed out in lessons. Teachers will also make a phone call home.
Termly	Teachers will nominate up to four pupils across each their teaching timetable who have had the best attitude to learning that term. These pupils will be invited to a celebration afternoon, in school, where they will be off timetable and be rewarded for their achievement. Pupils will receive a letter and certificate. A board of English stars in English will show the pupils who have received these.
Yearly	Teachers will nominate one boy and one girl across their timetable based on their attitude to learning, effort and progress made across the year. We will then organise a celebration activity, that could be in or out of school. On top of this pupils will receive a letter, badge and certificate.
